Man remains 'critical' after stabbing incident

A MAN is fighting for his life after being stabbed in Haverhill on Tuesday evening.

The victim has been named locally as Kevin Forrester.

Officers were called at around 10.55pm on Tuesday when Mr Forrester, 34, arrived at Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge, with serious stab wounds.

When admitted to hospital, his injuries were described as "life-threatening".

He remains in a critical, but stable, condition.

Police believe that the attack happened in Harrow Road in the town, after they received reports of an altercation in a nearby car park.

It is thought to have occurred between 9.30pm and 10pm.

Two other crime scenes were set up in the town yesterday at the Haverhill Recreation Ground toilets, near to Camps Road, and at Montford Court.

All three cordons have now been removed.

The 34-year-old victim was sentenced to 18 weeks imprisonment for theft at Bury Magistrates Court in February 2012.

At the time of the offence, Mr Forrester was living at Glemsford Place in the town.

BY DEBRA FOX

He stole thousands of pounds worth of electrical equipment from a garden shed before calling a taxi to try and escape with the goods.

Officers have not yet been able to establish precisely what happened during the stabbing incident as they have not been able to speak to the victim.

But they would like to hear from anyone who witnessed an altercation in the area, or anyone who believes they may have any details in relation to an incident in Harrow Road on Tuesday evening.

A Suffolk Police spokesman said: "While officers have not yet been able to get a full account of what has occurred from the victim, the suspect is believed to be a lone man."

Town mayor tucks into a charity breakfast

TUCK IN: Frankie and Benny's charity breakfast. Manager Matt Graham, Anthony Do Nascimento and Mayor Roger Andre.

A RESTAURANT chain invited a guest of honour to dine with them to raise money for their chosen charity.

Haverhill's Town Mayor Cllr Roger André tucked into his full English at Frankie and Benny's, in Ehrlinghausen Way, as part of a charity breakfast.

The event, which was held on Friday, July 12, offered guests a free breakfast in exchange for a donation to Debra - a charity working on behalf of people with genetic skin blistering condition Epidermolysis Bullosa.

Deputy Manager Charlotte Hayman said that the restaurant served 19 tables of diners between and made £300.

She said: "If you average that out to between two and three people per table we had a lot of visitors."

The team from the restaurant visited the Debra shop on the High Street to provide some breakfast butties for the hardworking staff.

Haverhill on shortlist of UK's worst towns

HAVERHILL has made the shortlist of 100 towns that have been dubbed the crappiest in the country.

These towns were voted as the worst places to live in Britain, but Haverhill could still escape the cut if residents show their pride.

The towns are going to be whittled down to 50 locations to make an appearance in Crap Towns Returned, the latest instalment in a series of books focusing on the lowest of the low.

Infamous for causing controversy, the new book will be published in October this year and writers Sam Jordison and Dan Kieran are giving residents the chance to fight back by posting a video and listing it #craptown or #notacraptown on Twitter.

Town Mayor Cllr Roger André, said: "There are a few people in Haverhill who seem to spend their whole life talking the town down."

"Yet all the people we see in Haverhill and who we talk to say they love living here."

The mayor says that the town provides as much as it can for all of the people who live there.

DEBRA FOX

It has problems, as all towns do, but the community is working together to resolve the issues, he said.

Samuel Ward Academy's Principal Howard Lay has lived in Haverhill for 15 years and could not believe the town had been graded so harshly, especially in light of recent improvements and developments.

He hailed his current pupils as some of the most gifted he had ever come across and dubbed his school, graded Outstanding across all areas by Ofsted, as one of the best he has ever worked in.

Mr Lay, who has been principal for 13 years, said: "Anyone who knows Haverhill over the last decade or so just won't recognise that view."

"Over the last 10 or 15 years the change has been striking and I have so much respect for the people of Haverhill for working hard and getting on with it."

Principal of Castle Partnership Academy Trust, Madeleine Vigar, agreed with Mr Lay, praising the town's young people for their achievements.

She also stressed that it was important to feel proud of the town.

She said: "Haverhill is an excellent place to live and work. We have excellent schools, a variety of businesses and a growing town. Couple this with the young people people we work with every day, who have high standards and fresh aspirations to succeed."

"I think it's important that all the people of this town, young and old, feel proud of what we can all achieve."

Huntingdon and Bury St Edmunds also made the list of crap towns.

Nursery in final five for top prize at awards ceremony

A CHAIN of nurseries have been nominated for an award.

Dizzy Ducks, who have nurseries in Haverhill and Essex, are on the list for the 'Nursery Chain of the Year 2013' prize.

The winners will be announced on September 28 at a special ceremony at London's Grand Connaught Rooms.

The Nursery World Awards are now in their fifth year, and an accolade from them has become the cherry on the cake for any hard working nursery.

They recognise the best practice and work of all early years and childcare facilities across the country.

Visit www.dizzyducks.co.uk for more information.

Hub's got what it takes to raise the money

A GROUP of friends combined their talents for a show the town would never forget.

Adults in Haverhill who attend sessions held by Suffolk charity The Befriending Scheme had been practising hard since Christmas to take part in Hub's Got Talen on June 28.

The talent show raised £309 to go towards supporting the scheme and the people who use it.

The charity runs drop-in sessions, called "hubs" in the town every Friday and two Tuesday evenings a month for vulnerable adults who suffer from learning difficulties or mental illness.

Learning goes hi-tech: with iPads

STUDENTS joining Castle Manor Academy in September will be treated to something more than a planner.

Each new Year 7 pupil will be awarded an iPad when they start their secondary school life in place of a diary.

It is hoped that the tablet, which will be used by the student in every lesson, will transform the way the schoolchildren learn.

The new devices will allow students to be constantly connected to the academy's ICT facilities and give them access to apps to help with their lessons.

The first task for the iPads is to focus on students' targets in literacy, numeracy and communication.

Incoming Head of School, Matthew Gibson, has been leading the group of staff and students who hoped to see the project succeed.

He said: "This is a really exciting project that will change the way students learn."

"The iPads will revolutionise the way students access ICT, communicate with their teachers and the way they lead their own learning."

The group worked hard to decide how the devices could be used effectively to improve learning.

Mr Gibson said: "We're really keen to see what the students can achieve when they start to truly lead learning."

Mystery as Rascals to close later this month

PLAYTIME: Gillian Bayford, Cindy Smith with 2-year-old Jamie, and Kelly Brown, pictured at the reopening of Rascals Playbarn. Picture by David Johnson

A NEWLY renovated playbarn in Haverhill is set to close less than three months after opening.

Rascals Playbarn in Boundary Road, Haverhill, will invite little ones in for a final afternoon of fun on Sunday, July 28 and close its doors at 4pm.

The announcement was made public on Facebook last Wednesday, after staff had been informed.

Co-owner Cindy Smith said that the closure is due to "unforeseen circumstances".

She said: "There's nothing else we can really say. We would just like to thank those customers that have used us and the few regulars that we have had."

"Thank you for your support and thanks to the staff for all of their hard work."

Rascals was taken over by Haverhill lottery winners Gillian and Adrian Bayford, the Weekly News revealed, after they scooped £148 million in the Euromillions in August 2012.

Gillian and her friend Cindy Smith re-opened the barn, formerly Cheeky

DEBRA FOX

Chimps, in late May with the hope of providing a much-needed place for the town's children to play.

Cheeky Chimps had suddenly closed in February leaving Haverhill children disappointed.

Parents and customers took to the social networking site to vent their disappointment and anger that the town has once again been robbed of a vital community facility.

Dani Rogers said: "Will you be opening again in the future at all? My little boy loved it at Rascals."

Some also shared well wishes for the owners' future.

Kim Killian said: "At least they gave it a go, regardless. Shame to see it go. But well done to all that tried to make something of it."

"Good luck."

Hunt for driver who approached young boy

THE driver of a black left-hand drive four door saloon car is being hunted by police after he stopped to offer a boy a lift.

The man, described to be in his mid 30s to 40s, was driving his car on July 10 when he approached a nine-year-old boy and offered him a lift home.

The incident happened at Clare Country Park at around 5.40pm.

The man reportedly has short black hair with a longer fringe, and was clean shaven with a day's stubble and looking red faced at the time of the incident.

He was also wearing a leather type black jacket with a white shirt and grey jogging bottoms.

If you were the driver of the saloon car or have any information relating to this incident please contact PC Patricia Sinclair at the St Edmundsbury Rural South SNT on 101.

You can also call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Bishop David will step into Suffolk

AN INTERIM replacement has been chosen to take over care of Suffolk as The Rt Rev Nigel Stock, Bishop of the St Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocese, prepares to move on.

The Rt Revd David Thomson, Bishop of Huntingdon, will take on the role and work alongside the Suffolk Bishop during a handover period until he takes up his new job.

Bishop David, 61, will work with the communities of Suffolk, while continuing to serve Huntingdon, until a permanent replacement is chosen.

He said: "It is a great privilege to be asked to work as a shepherd for Christ's people in the Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich as they wait for a new Diocesan Bishop.

"I pray that I will be able to help them to continue to grow in faith, deepen discipleship, and share richly the good things God has given us with the communities we serve."

Bishop Nigel, 63, has been asked by the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby to become Bishop at Lambeth.

He will leave Suffolk in late October, having led his current diocese since 2007.

He said: "I am enormously grateful to Bishop David and the Diocese of Ely for this generous offer of ministry which will be very reassuring for the people of this diocese in the vacancy."

Thieves target three shops

THIEVES who raided three shops are being hunted by police.

Two premises in Linton were targeted between Friday and Saturday and a further shop in Sawston was attacked.

Thieves wearing balaclavas used a crowbar to break through the doors of the Falkner Store, in Sawston, at about 1.30am on Saturday.

They stole alcohol and cigarette.

The Bakery in Linton High Street was broken into between 3pm on Friday and 5.50am on Saturday and cash was taken.

Linton's Co-Op was also broken into at around 3.20am on Saturday and cigarettes were stolen.

Police are linking the incidents and want to hear from anyone who saw a silver Subaru Impreza estate in the area.

Detective Constable Stuart Thorburn said: "We are urging people with information to come forward as these crimes have had a real impact on the local communities and local businesses."

40 year milestone for Martin

SAINSBURY'S staff in the Haverhill store gathered together to celebrate a colleague's 40th year of service.

Martin Balmer, 55, of Bury St Edmunds, started his career as a student doing weekend work in the old Bury store.

Now, as deputy manager, he has worked his way up the company ladder and plans to take retirement next March after marking the occasion with a cake and colleagues by his side.

The 55-year-old said: "40 years sounds like a long time but it doesn't feel it. I'm grateful I have managed to retain my health and motivation and enjoyment of the job."

"Just to have a few colleagues around me and to think they organised something for me makes me feel so proud."

PARTY: Shaun Gadsby, Store Manager, Martin Balmer, Deputy Manager, and Gary McMaster, Deputy Manager.

Over to you: It's time for Haverhill to have a say

RESIDENTS can finally speak up and have their say as a consultation drop in for Vision 2031 comes to the town.

The session will take place on Saturday, July 20, at Haverhill's library, on Camps Road, from 10am until 3.30pm.

The controversial plans have split opinion across the town with some people in favour of the proposed changes for Haverhill over the next two decades, and others wanting further developments.

UKIP councillor Cllr Tony Brown, who holds the county seat for Haverhill East and Kedington, opposes the current plans, branding them unsuitable for the town in its current state.

The councillor, who became the first ever UKIP member to represent his ward, has been running a petition throughout the consultation period, which started on June 18, to encourage Haverhill residents to voice their opinions about what they wanted to see.

He said: "People are very much in agreement with what we are saying about 2031."

"They want a small hospital in Haverhill, they want the road to Cambridge improved, the high street to be regenerated, an extension to East Town Park."

"I have actually been stunned by the appetite that the town's people have for real improvements to the town and the vast range of ideas that people have. They have real vision."

Cllr Brown has also said that he does not object to the many new homes planned for the town, just that he wants other things built to support the requirements they will bring.

Town Mayor Cllr Roger André says that it is too much to ask to try and rewrite the plans.

He said: "We recognise that we need an up to date planning document, but we would like to help the current plan instead of starting from scratch."

The mayor says the current vision is realistic for a town that could increase by 10,000 in population.

Cllr André said: "We are trying to make the plan fit for a Haverhill that could grow to 37,000 people in 2031 and I think the current plans provide the appropriate community facilities we need."

The consultation period for the plans runs until August 9.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Handbag snatched

A WOMAN'S bag was snatched after she left her van window open while making a delivery.

The yellow designer handbag contained £150 in cash and an iPhone.

It was snatched on Friday, July 12, at 12.50pm when the victim's van was parked in Murton Slade.

Anyone with information can call Haverhill Police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Garage burglary

A CHILD'S quad bike and tools worth almost £800 have been taken from a garage.

The theft happened overnight between Tuesday, July 9, and Wednesday, July 10.

The blue quad bike was worth £50 and a mikita lithium blue 18 volt contractor kit including a jigsaw, a circular saw and an impact driver drill, all kept in a blue mikita canvas bag, was also snatched.

Anyone with information can call Haverhill Police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Runners in the race

MORE than 20 athletes from Haverhill Running Club took part in the Newmarket 10K.

First across the line for the club was Martin Lawrence, who came in 20th place overall.

He made it to the finish in a time of 40.38 - a worthy score which put him top of the charts in the veteran45 category.

Lake swimming banned

RESIDENTS from Haverhill and Saffron Walden have been spotted travelling to Cherry Hinton to try and take a dip in the lakes.

Cambridge Police Officers say that people have been breaking into the private land in a desperate attempt to cool off in the hot weather.

Patrols are being increased, in conjunction with Cambridge City Council and the landowner and officers are urging people not to swim in the water as they do not know the condition.

Rogue swimmers have also been parking inconsiderately, leaving litter, making noise and swimming after drinking.

Feeling lucky?

TRY your hand at winning at a charity casino night in Haverhill.

The event will take place at Haverhill Golf Club, on Coupsals Road, and money raised will go to St Nicholas Hospice Care.

Tickets cost £25, plus online booking fee, and include a two course hot buffet and £5 of chips to play at the tables. The dress code is black tie and cocktail dresses and there is a £50 prize up for grabs.

School's golf team has it down to a tee

A GROUP of golfers from Samuel Ward Academy represented the county in a prestigious competition.

Pupils Richard Boyles, Liam Merritt and Jason Carpenter spent July 9 and 10 at the National Team Championships in Woodhall Spa, Lincolnshire.

They gained a place after their success at the County Championships, which took place in Ipswich in March.

The course, which is home to the English Golf Association, was a challenge for the schoolboys.

They played two competitive rounds of golf against the other participants and though they did not come away with a victory, they did themselves and their school proud.

Kevin Fidell, enhancement coordinator, hailed the game a great achievement.

He said: "It was a fantastic experience for the players, and they will of learnt a lot from playing at such a well organised and prestigious event, and playing against other golfers from all around the country."

"There are many good golfers at the school and Lewis Whiting is also representing the School and County later in the month when he competes at the Schools National Individual Championships in Lancashire on the 22nd July."

Youth centre plan for the old police station

DEBRA FOX

HAVERHILL's Town Council has revealed it has put in a proposal to take over the old police station and magistrates court in the town.

If their plan, put to Suffolk County Council, is successful they will turn the premises into a youth and community centre for everyone in the town to use – as asked for in the Community Budget Pilot.

Haverhill was picked as one of 12 pilot locations to try out community budgets, allowing local residents to have more of a say in what money is spent on in the neighbourhood.

They asked for a one-stop shop for youth services, providing advice, employment opportunities and information for all of the young people in the town.

The mayor said that the Town Council is committed to finding a building to house these facilities, and they now hope they've decided on the right spot.

He said: "We are looking to take on a building, and the community budget is going to provide the staffing and funding that goes with it."

"This is something that is long over-

COMMITTED: Mayor Roger Andre

due."

Haverhill Town Council have just submitted their proposal and comments to Suffolk County Council, who own the buildings, on Camps Road.

Town Clerk Will Austin has told the Weekly News that the county are currently asking for money in exchange for the building instead of gifting the property, as they have done most recently with the old Chalkstone School Estate, given to Place Court Care Home.

He said: "Instead of having youth related services developed by lots of different people in lots of different places and we want to bring it altogether into a single Haverhill youth service, run from a single venue."

Mr Austin said that the plans are well supported throughout the town, and that all three of Haverhill's county councillors have voiced their support, as well as West Suffolk MP Matthew Hancock.

UKIP Cllr Tony Brown, who holds the county seat in Haverhill East and Kedington said: "We are fully supporting what the town council is doing to achieve and it will be great to have all of these facilities in house."

"The benefits will far outweigh any monetary value and cost that the county does get."

A Suffolk County Council spokesman said: "The Town Council have submitted a proposal to Suffolk County Council for the former Magistrates Building in Haverhill. Suffolk County Council's Corporate Property Programme Board will consider the proposal when they next meet."

The next meeting is on July 30.

Come and see us in town on Saturday

I JUST wanted to let you know that I have had a series of health issues for the past few months – however I am hopefully well on the road to recovery now and at all times have tried to keep on top of resident’s issues.

I can only apologise if any of you have not been able to get hold of me.

However, Cllr Richardson and I are holding one of our regular surgeries in the Haverhill Library on Saturday 20th July.

We look forward to seeing you if you would like to come along.

We deal with issues across both County and Borough Councils and can direct you to other organisations if they are more appropriate.

If you are not sure if your problem is something we can deal with then please do drop in and have a word and we can then see if we can help.

We are also intending to hold surgeries at the Library on the following dates if this one is not convenient and also give our contact details below if you would like to phone or email us.

We hope to see you on Saturday.

Look after the animals in this hot weather

WITH the recent arrival of hot weather, we should be reminded that animals suffer and die when temperatures rise.

Dogs die very quickly in hot cars and they should not be left inside them, even for very short periods.

Opening a window a few inches is not sufficient.

Other animals suffer, too. Rabbits must not be left in a hutch in the glaring sun or inside a sweltering garage or shed.

They need a cool, shady place where the air circulates, and where they are able to move freely.

A hot rabbit can be kept cool by applying cold water gently to his ears.

Should your rabbit become listless, or start breathing hard through an open mouth or go limp, get him to a vet immediately.

Rabbits must also be checked daily throughout summer months for signs of flystrike.

Smaller animals, like hamsters, rats and gerbils, can be kept cool

Review: Treasure Island, East Town Park, July 13

On Saturday 13th July, on the hottest day of the year so far, set amongst the tree’s in Haverhill’s East Town Park was the stage for the swashbuckling family musical, Treasure Island.

As the audience tucked into their

Some great performances were to be had by Michael Ayiotis who played multiple roles, Emma Clare, Niola Foxfield, Lee Peck, Marcus Houden and Tomas Loftus.

Cambridge Touring Theatre Company, audience participation is key and had everyone singing along to the catchy sea shanty.

Children were encouraged to dress up as pirates and many had come along in their best pirate fashion which all added to the fun atmosphere.

So Treasure Island will go down in history for another fabulously entertaining summer evening by The Cambridge Touring Theatre Company and I will look forward to next year’s performance of Alice in Wonderland.

Samuel Ward rolls out the red carpet across town

More pictures online at haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

GLAMOROUS: Year 11 girls from Samuel Ward dressed to the nines for their prom.

HAVERHILL'S high street was transformed into a red carpet parade worthy of a Hollywood blockbuster for a year 11 prom. Students from Samuel Ward turned heads on July 11 when they travelled down the High Street in a range of flashy cars and motors, determined to arrive at their prom in style. Tractors joined the vehicle parade down the High Street last year and 2013's prom went off in similar style, with a vintage 1930s fire engine joining the charge.

Students danced the night away, said farewell to teachers and friends and enjoyed refreshments.

Principal Howard Lay said: "It was absolutely excellent.

"It always brings the town centre to a standstill and brings all sorts of different cars and vehicles.

"The pupils were dressed fantastically and it was a lovely evening."

Inaugural Summer Bash is finally here!

DEBRA FOX

THE countdown is almost over and residents across Haverhill can look forward to a fabulous day in the sunshine.

The biggest show that the town has seen for years is coming to the recreation ground on Sunday and with the weather forecast set to be sunny, it has all the ingredients for a perfect day.

Children can get creative and try their luck in the fancy dress competition, which will be judged by Haverhill Town Mayor Cllr Roger André after he opens the show.

The mayor will lead the way through the town to the recreation ground, where he will open the show's three arenas at 11am.

He will lead a fleet of classic cars, including an Aston Martin and an Only Fools and Horses replica, from prime position in the front seat of the beloved Haverhill car – a cadillac.

He said: "I'm going to be arriving in style to open the show and I'm very much looking forward to it."

Any money made from the show will be given to main beneficiary Lamp H and the town's foodbank, elderly and scouts. Show committee chairman David Doughty said that the show, who is run by Haverhill people, for Haverhill people and featuring Haverhill talent, wanted to recognise local charities too.

After weeks of preparation, it's hard to believe that the weekend is almost here.

He said: "The committee and myself are all really excited and can't wait for Sunday.

"There has been some last minute nerves but we are going to go with it and just hope everyone has a smile on their face."

The work that has gone into the Summer Bash has not just come from the show committee, but from the businesses, talent and individuals of Haverhill too.

David says that he and the committee will find all the work worthwhile when the public get involved on the day.

He said: "It will be great to see audience participation, so it's not just all about the talents and businesses in the show, but the public taking part.

"We want them to go away having had a good day."

You can start participating in the Summer Bash now by purchasing your programme for £1 from the Haverhill Arts Centre.

They are also available from Tony Stowger Jewellers in the High Street.

Each programme has a lucky draw number, giving the chance to win an unlimited pass to Haverhill Cineworld for a year.

There is also a treasure hunt map for children, with prizes up for grabs.

Haverhill's fourth fun day

A MAMMOTH day of fun is coming back to town for another year.

Haverhill's annual fun day is being held at Haverhill Rugby Club on Saturday, July 27, to raise money for bereaved children.

The day's entertainment will offer a barbecue and cake stall as well as a raffle.

Children can be kept amused with a face painting booth and adults can have a drink and party to the continuous stream of soul, RnB, jazz and funk.

The day runs from 12 noon until midnight.

All funds are going to Grief Encounter.

Drop it off at the bank

DONATIONS can now be made round the clock with the opening of a new textile bank.

The recycling bank, which has been opened at Genzyme, on Rookwood Way, Haverhill, allows residents to visit outside of usual shopping hours.

The pink bank is collecting donations for St Nicholas

Hospice Care, which has a shop on Haverhill High Street.

Dropping off unwanted clothing, towels, blankets, sheets, shoes and curtains makes £500,000 for the charity every year.

OPEN DAY: Owner Chloe Garrett and Recruitment Consultant, Craig Beasley.

Craig joins the recruitment team

A RECRUITMENT agency have welcomed a new consultant to their team.

PC Recruit, on Station Road, Haverhill, have appointed a new full time Recruitment Consultant, Craig Beasley, to handle vacancies across Haverhill and Bury St Edmunds.

Owner of PC Recruit Chloe Garrett said: "Craig is extremely creative, tenacious and he shares the vision that all of the team at PC Recruit have, which is to deliver an honest service to both our clients and candidates."

The new addition has arrived just in the nick of time for a big event to be held at the premises on Tuesday, July 23.

The team are holding an open day for job seekers in the town to come and find out more about getting that perfect role.

Visit them between 10am and 2pm for more on local job opportunities.

Teacher, 63, set himself alight, inquest is told

A HUNDON teacher who was found badly burned beside his car had set himself alight, an inquest heard.

Roger Melhuish, 63, of Farmerie Road, Hundon, died of extensive burns which covered 80 per cent of his body.

Mr Melhuish had driven to a remote former wartime airfield at Rattlesden, near Stowmarket, on March 11 where it is believed he covered himself in petrol and set himself on fire.

Mr Melhuish was discovered by farmer Andrew Watts, who was walking his dogs nearby.

The teacher was still

DEBRA FOX

alive, but badly burnt, so Mr Watts called for help.

Police officers were first on the scene and administered first aid until paramedics and an air ambulance arrived.

Mr Melhuish died an hour later.

The inquest was told family members had not noticed anything worrying about Mr Melhuish, and his doctor also said he was unaware of any depression or disorder which could have led to him deciding to end his life.

Helen Melhuish, the teacher's widow, said on the day of her husband's death, she had not been concerned about him when he went out because he did not seem any different.

She thinks it's possible that her husband was affected by a bereavement in 2012, but it had not been obvious at the time.

Recording that Mr Melhuish took his own life, Dr Dean said: "Clearly in all the sad circumstances he appears to be someone who was a private person who would not have expressed outwardly what his intentions were."

Surgeries on the streets

TOWN councillors have taken advantage of the hot weather and held surgeries on the streets.

Members of Haverhill Town Council spent every evening for a fortnight on a different street corner addressing residents' concerns.

The aim is to pick up comments at a local level and meet people who are unable to attend council meetings.

Town Clerk Will Austin said this was a new way to engage with the town's residents.

They expect to have seen 300 people by the end of this week.

He said: "This type of surgery is unusual in local government - I haven't come across them before in my 23 year career working in councils."

"But they fit well with the efforts Haverhill's Town Councillors make to get close to the community, other examples being their attendance at community events across the town, and of course setting up market stalls to gather local views."

Wild rides and wacky races at town's annual transport rally

MOTORS of all shapes and sizes lined up side by side for a day of wheely good fun at Haverhill's annual transport rally.

A collection of more than 150 vintage cars, lorries and military vehicles filled the Town Hall's car park on Sunday ready to take part.

As well as taking tours around the town and offering rides to visitors and guests, the vehicles took part in a road run around Haverhill and the surrounding villages, including Sturmer, Baythorne End, Stoke by Clare and Clare.

The event was organised in conjunction with the Historic Commercial Vehicle Society of East Anglia, who have partnered the rally for years.

Mike Hickford, secretary of the Historic Commercial Vehicle Society, said beforehand that 2013's event was set to be the best ever.

It did not disappoint.

Town Mayor Cllr Roger André also attended to hand out the prizes at the rally and bask in the sunshine with the rest of the visitors.

He said: "It was brilliant, excellent, and I really enjoyed myself."

"I went on the open top buses and everything and it was a pleasure to give out all of the prizes. It's wonderful to see people preserving the heritage and social history of the vehicles."

The Mayor's prize-giving included handing out awards to the best bus, best commercial vehicle and best wartime motor.

Mobile phone lands man, 22, in court

DEBRA FOX

AN ALLEGED thief was caught out after recycling a stolen mobile phone, a court heard.

Jamie Dale, 22, of Boxford Court, Haverhill, is accused of taking a phone and wallet from another man after an assault on July 28 last year.

Dale reportedly then sold the mobile phone to a recycling company, which discovered the device had been stolen.

The 22-year-old pleaded not guilty to robbery at Ipswich Crown Court on Tuesday.

During the first day of his trial, the court heard that Stephen Husband was attacked when walking to his home in Chalkestone, Haverhill.

He was attacked by two other men, and allegedly robbed by Dale.

Mr Husband told the jury that he met Dale, who he did not previously know, walking through Haverhill bus station.

They started walking together and two other men appeared moments later.

The victim was punched in the face by a Polish-sounding man before being kicked and punched when he fell to the ground.

Mr Husband, who admits he was drunk at the time of the incident, said: "Whenever I tried to get up I got punched back down again."

The victim's wallet, containing cash and a bank card, was stolen together with a mobile phone which Dale subsequently sold to Cash and Cheque Exchange in Haverhill for £42.

Mr Husband picked Dale out of a police line-up of nine other men, but said in court during evidence that he was now "uncertain" it was him.

Dale argued in evidence that he was only trying to help Mr Husband, who had been knocked on the ground into a nettle patch by one of the other men.

When arrested in November, Dale gave police a prepared statement which said: "I bought the phone from a Polish lad for £20 for myself. I changed my mind. I had no idea that it had been stolen."

The 22-year-old admits he was there at the time of attack, but denies robbery.

The trial continues.

Climb aboard the health bus

A BRIGHT red bus will be pulling up in Haverhill to spread the word and know-how on Type 2 diabetes.

The SOS bus will not only have information on hand for people who fear they may have the condition, but will offer tips for those who aren't managing their illness properly.

Funded by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, the bus will have a pit stop in Bury St Edmunds on July 24, and will arrive in Haverhill on August 23.

The bus will be there from 9am until 1pm.

Type 2 diabetes, the most common strain of the disease, occurs when the body doesn't produce enough insulin or when the body doesn't react to insulin.

For more information on how to live with Type 2 and to find out more about diabetes visit www.diabetes.org.uk

HEALTH CHECK: The SOS bus will visit Haverhill in August

Fond tributes paid to sport star Alan, 55

BY DEBRA FOX

A KEEN sportsman has died after a short battle with cancer.

Alan Bailey, 55, grew up in Haverhill and attended Cangle, Place Farm and Castle Manor schools.

Born into a family where sport was a driving force, Alan spent much of his childhood on the town's recreation ground with either a football or cricket ball in hand.

His father Eric, 87, played football for Haverhill Rovers during the late 50s and early 60s and cricket for Haverhill until the mid-80s.

Alan followed in his father's footsteps also playing for Haverhill Rovers from the 1976 through to 1990.

After leaving the Rovers, Alan played for Braintree

A KEEN SPORTSMAN: Cricket Haverhill 1st team, 1985

Alan is standing on far left, next to his brother Colin

Town, Halstead Town and Tiptree Utd.

Up until November 2012, Alan was still turning out regularly for a veteran side made up of former Eastern Counties players. Alan also played cricket for the Haverhill first team.

In 1990, Alan settled in Braintree and began his teaching career in Witham.

He died at home on July 5.

Wife Deborah, 49, described him as an 18-year-old at heart, and daughter Harriet, 17, said she felt lucky to have him as her father.

Deborah said: "He loved working with young people and although 55 he was 18 at heart. He never said a bad word about anybody and always looked for the good in people."

Alan's funeral took place at St Peter's in Braintree on July 12.

Brother Colin Bailey, 54, said: "It was great to see so many people at the service."

"Alan would have been overwhelmed by the efforts people made to celebrate with the family."

"I would like to thank personally the Haverhill legends from both the footballing and cricketing past who attended."

"At the Rovers pre-season friendly against Histon FC, a minute's silence was held before the game, which was a lovely tribute by the club my brother regarded as his footballing home."

Alan's family said they wanted to thank Macmillan nurses in Farleigh hospice, Chelmsford, for their help towards the end of the 55-year-old's life.

Spreading the word about organ donation

TRANSPLANT: National Donation Awareness Week in Haverhill Tesco.

AN ORGAN donor recipient arranged a week of awareness-raising to tie in with National Transplant Week.

The team at Haverhill Tesco, in Cangle Road, have been sharing their knowledge with shoppers in line with the weeklong event, which ran from July 8 to July 14.

The staff ended their week in style with a display in the store to encourage customers to sign up to become an organ donor.

The week was organised by Tesco worker Mandy Smith, 46, who had a kidney transplant in May 2012.

Her husband Paul, 46, of Broadcroft Crescent, Haverhill, said: "We wanted to get everyone involved with giving out information.

"All of this has been down to my wife. She wanted to try and give something back after all that she went through."

Visit www.transplantweek.co.uk for more information about the weeklong campaign and what it means to be on the organ donor register.

A HAVERHILL cyclist is taking on an ambitious challenge as part of the Olympic legacy.

Duncan Thomas, 52, is taking on the Prudential Ride London-Surrey 100 alongside 20,000 other amateur cyclists.

The route will start at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and follow a similar route to the London 2012 Road Cycling Races.

Participants will cross London and Surrey, travelling 100 miles, and finish on the Mall.

The 52-year-old of Trinity Link, Haverhill, gained his place in the race after entering a ballot.

He is pedalling for Breast Cancer Care in memory of his mum Margaret, who died in 2008 aged 73.

She was diagnosed in 1979. Duncan said: "Breast Cancer Care and other parts of Cancer Research helped my mam to get through the next 30 years."

"I thought it was a way of me saying thank you, but it's going to be the first time I've done anything of this scale."

The 52-year-old has never cycled this distance before, and has been getting fighting fit for the race by cycling between 30 and 90 miles.

Duncan started cycling three years ago and has since fallen in love with the sport.

He said: "This is now my hobby and I love to do it. Once you reach your peak you have to stay at it."

"I just want to raise as much as possible, or as much as people are willing to give."

Duncan, who works in food production at International Flavours and Fragrances, Haverhill, is only asking for donations, as much or as little as possible, and has put collections boxes for Breast Cancer Care in various locations.

The event will take place on August 4, part of a weekend of cycling devised by Mayor of London Boris Johnson in an attempt to preserve the action of the Olympics.

A free family fun ride will also take place on August 3 - an 8 mile route designed to tour around some of the city's finest landmarks.

A grand prix cycle, for professional women, hand-cycle and junior cyclists, will also take place on the Saturday.

Ex-police officer pleads guilty to benefit fraud

A FORMER police officer has appeared in court and pleaded guilty to benefit fraud.

Suzanne O'Connor, 50, of Church End, Depden, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court on July 10.

She pleaded guilty to two offences of making a false statement or representation to obtain benefits and one of furnishing, causing or allowing the production of a document falsely to obtain benefits. It is claimed that O'Connor failed to reveal at the time she made the claims that she was in receipt of an occupational pension.

The offences are said to have been committed between October 2008 and July 2009. Judge Rupert Overbury told O'Connor that she would be granted bail until sentencing next month.

Cricket event comes back with a twist

AN ANNUAL cricket event is having an overhaul this year, promising that guests will be more entertained than ever.

Haverhill Cricket Club are holding their Corporate Cricket Event at the club, on Manor Road, and have pledged to spoil their guests with a champagne reception, sit down lunch and stand up comedy.

The meal will be hosted by professional comedian Jed Stone and the guest of honour will be ex-England cricketer and current Chairman of England Selectors Geoff Miller, one of the most sought after speakers on the sport's circuit.

The day's match, on August 15, will be between Haverhill XI and Overseas Pro XI, with all of the guests currently playing cricket in the UK.

Little frogs get sporty at Lilypads day

A DAY nursery took full advantage of the summer weather and spent a day playing sports.

Lilypads Day Nursery, in Burton End, Haverhill, held their first sports day for preschoolers on Wednesday, July 10.

The little ones worked and played hard in a range of races, including a scooter and egg and spoon, as well as an obstacle course.

They were cheered along by proud parents and friends – who did not get let off that easily.

There was also a race for mums and dads to take part in – much to the amusement of the children.

Each child was rewarded for their efforts with a winners medal and a bonus prize – a refreshing fruity lolly.

For more information about the nursery, please call (01440) 767805.

Man, 30, was found with 1,875 images of child porn

A MAN who was found with 1,875 child abuse images on his computer has been handed a suspended prison sentence.

Dean Ashby, 30, of Balsham Road, Linton, had two images which were at level 5, the worst category of child pornography, which can involve sadism and bestiality. A further 173 were at level 4.

Most of the images were of girls aged between 8 and 12 but some victims were as young as 2 or 3, Cambridge Crown Court heard.

There were another 55,000 images found at his home, which had not been examined.

GARETH MCPHERSON

Marti Blair, prosecuting, said unsorted images were "likely to be an increasing issue" because of police resources, to which Judge Gareth Hawkesworth replied: "Oh dear."

Judge Hawkesworth told Ashby no prison sentence he could impose would be long enough to ensure his rehabilitation so gave him a 16-month prison sentence suspended for two years.

He also ordered him to complete a sex offender's programme and do 150 hours of unpaid work in the community.

Ashby was also made the subject of a sexual offences prevention order for 10 years.

Judge Hawkesworth said: "You have viewed indecent images over a significant period of time and you devoted yourself to that particular subject with some vigour."

The court heard self-employed decorator Ashby, who admitted three counts of making indecent images of children, two counts of possession of indecent images and one count of possession of a prohibited image of child at a previous hearing, had already undertaken courses to address his behaviour.

Winter's tale is one of warmth and love

Happy and healthy: Winter with proud parents Lucy and Jason.
Pictures: Keith Jones

BABY Winter is an adorable bundle of joy: giggling away in his baby bouncer, his big blue eyes light up as proud parents Lucy and Jason Hamilton scoop him into their arms, making funny faces as their 'little monster' smiles the most infectious of smiles. With his dinky fingers and wide-eyed amazement, he looks like any other seven-month-old boy; it's only the tiny scar on his back which reveals Winter's first few months in the world have been far from ordinary.

"Winter's just amazing," Lucy smiles. "He's such a happy boy and so strong. We can't believe everything he's been through and he just takes it all in his stride."

"He's a good lad," Jason adds adoringly, as he bounces his son – a picture of health – up and down on his knee.

It could have turned out rather differently though. Last year, Lucy and Jason, who live in Wyboston, near St Neots, were full of excitement preparing for the arrival of their first child, but the 36-week scan revealed news that every parent dreads: there was a possibility something might be wrong with their son.

"It was a really brilliant pregnancy," Lucy remembers. "Everything was going well but then towards the end doctors noticed my bump was bigger than it should have been. We had some tests and they found out I had excess amniotic fluid, and one of the reasons for this was because Winter wasn't swallowing any."

The doctors couldn't confirm for certain what was wrong until Winter was born, but they told Lucy and Jason there was a chance it might be a condition called Tracheo Oesophageal

The birth of your first child should be the happiest day of any parent's life, but for Lucy and Jason Hamilton joy turned to heartbreak when their beautiful baby boy was rushed into intensive care before they could even give him a proper cuddle. They talk to Lydia Fallon.

Fistula (TOF). A rare condition – only one in 4,000 babies are born with it – which occurs when the oesophagus (the food pipe which connects the mouth with the stomach) is blocked, it requires immediate surgery so the baby can feed.

"We were just really hoping they had got it wrong. We felt gutted but came to the conclusion there wasn't anything we could do, so just tried to stay positive," Lucy says. "We had to be really cautious though: as soon as my waters broke we had to get to the hospital because there was then a risk that his cord might come down first with a big gush of water."

Winter Jay Hamilton was born at Hinchingsbrooke Hospital on November 27, 2012, weighing six pounds and six ounces. Lucy and Jason couldn't have been happier but their joy was short-lived. Doctors confirmed Winter did have TOF, and would have to go straight to the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at Cambridge's Rosie Hospital to be operated on the next day.

Although they had been prepared for the worst, the couple's world still came crumbling down as their son was taken away before they even had chance to hold him. "Having my baby and then seeing him be rushed into surgery was heart-breaking," says Lucy. "We were really anxious and just wanted to be over there, but we also had total faith he was in very good hands."

Winter was in theatre for three hours, but for Lucy and Jason it felt like a lifetime. "The surgeons opened up the blockages and simply stitched them up, which sounds quite straightforward but at the time the surgeon said the tubes they were working on were the size of a piece of macaroni, so really tiny," explains Lucy. "We were so upset. Our little boy had only been in the world one day and already had to go through all this distress."

Thankfully the surgery was a success, but seeing their baby boy – so tiny and vulnerable – hooked up to all kinds of bleeping machines was deeply distressing for the couple. "It was heart-breaking to see him sedated and covered in tubes. We had this beautiful baby son but we couldn't even cuddle him," remembers Lucy.

How did the couple stay strong? "We never allowed ourselves to think of the worst," Lucy recalls. "Although there are times when you just want to scream, and scoop him up and never let him go, we knew he was in good hands, and there wasn't any other place in the world we would have wanted him to be.

"Looking back it all seems like such a blur," she muses. "When you're in it and living it you can't think of anything else and you just try to focus on getting to the other side, but looking back now it seems like another lifetime ago."

The road to recovery was long for baby Winter. He still couldn't breathe on his own, and would have to be taught to feed through his mouth. Doctors were also wary that a lot of babies with TOF can also have other complications to do with their spine and kidneys; after everything the Hamilton family had been through, it was a relief when the tests came back clear. "The poor little lad had been through enough," says Lucy.

As the days went by Winter started to get stronger, and Lucy and Jason were thrilled when they got to change his bedding and nappy for the first time. "It was such a big step and we were so happy to be able to do it. The doctors also showed us how to wash his little face and how to keep his lips moist. It was amazing to be able to do this ourselves, after watching only nurses and doctors do this so far.

"Although we were welcoming parenthood a little differently to others, we were so excited."

After a week in intensive care Winter's doctors gradually reduced his medication and took him off his ventilator. Some of the tubes were removed, and Lucy and Jason were finally able to hold their son. "We were relieved; it seemed the worst was over, and we could even have our first proper cuddles with him, which were long overdue."

With Winter doing well, the family started to have meetings with the Addenbrooke's speech and language team to try and feed him by mouth. "Usually babies learn how to suck and swallow in the womb," Lucy explains. "They suck on their thumb and swallow the amniotic fluid but Winter wasn't doing this. So we had to teach him how to suck, breathe and swallow at the same time."

After three weeks in hospital Winter could finally be taken home on December 20, 2012; it was the perfect Christmas present. "It was so amazing when we could finally take him home. By then we were exhausted by hospitals and were so desperate to get him home for Christmas," Lucy says. "When he first came home we had to start by giving him just 2ml of milk, which is just half a teaspoon, and then we eventually got to a whole teaspoon and then a tablespoon – we were just over the moon!

"He was able to have his feeding tube out and take teaspoons by mouth, and now he can feed orally and has even taken in some purees," beams Lucy.

Throughout Winter's stay at Addenbrooke's, Lucy and Jason stayed at Chestnut House, the home from home provided by The Sick Children's Trust. The charity provides free, clean and comfortable accommodation for families that have seriously ill children in hospital, and for Lucy and Jason it was a Godsend. "Our whole stay at Addenbrooke's was helped immensely by our stay at Chestnut House. They were just amazing support and without them I really don't know how we would have coped emotionally and physically," says Lucy.

"We stayed with other parents who had babies in intensive care, and it makes you feel like you're not alone. It also gave us a sense of normality in what was such a stressful and chaotic situation – we are so thankful to them."

After everything they've been through, I wondered if the experience has changed Lucy and Jason's outlook on life? "It's taught us so many things," Lucy concludes. "To value life and take each day as it comes, to stay positive and value the NHS. They get a bad press but we could not fault them at one point. They are just always there to fix us and we are so lucky to have that."

Today, Winter is happy, handsome and healthy, the epitome of cute as he murmurs away in his doting parents' arms. He is now eating normally, and although there is a chance he might need another operation in the future, Lucy and Jason are determined to enjoy every moment with their beautiful baby boy.

And after such a traumatic start to parenthood, who can blame them? "Parenthood has been brilliant. Every little stage he reaches we appreciate; we even watch him have his bottle and find that amazing. He has come so far."

WITH Haverhill Leisure Centre's programme of climbing, archery, film afternoons, cycling, football, laser blast, racket sports, raft building, and crafts, no other facility in town offers a more affordable and varied activity programme for the summer holidays.

The Centre's popular holiday camps for children aged eight and over, and the new camps for six to seven year olds, will run from Wednesday, July 24 to Friday, August 30 (excluding Bank Holiday) between 9am to 5pm.

Activities this summer include athletics, cycling, swimming, football, racket sports, laser blast, arts and craft activities, film afternoons, pizza making with Frankie & Benny's and much more.

SO MUCH TO DO THIS SUMMER: At Haverhill Leisure Centre

If that wasn't enough, Abbeycroft Leisure will also be bringing its popular Explore Outdoor programme to East Town Park on July 29 and 30 from 10am to 4pm. Activities are from a range of archery, pond dipping, fire lighting, orienteering, and shelter building.

There's also the chance to have a go on the Centre's new portable climbing wall which will be in Haverhill Plaza (outside the leisure centre) on August 1 between 10am and 4pm.

The Centre's popular 'Ultimate Water Fight' will also take place on the last day of the school holidays Friday, August 30 from 2pm to 4pm for ages five to 14. Plus there is a cycling session with British Cycling and raft building sessions in the pool.

The Leisure Centre will also be providing sporting activities for Puddlebrook Fun Day on July 31, Haverhill Rovers Family Fun Day on August 7, and Picnic in the Park at East Town Park on August 21.

Holiday Camps are just £5 for a morning or afternoon, £9.99 for a whole day, or £48 for a week. Early drop off (8.30am) or late pick up (5.30pm) is available for an extra £3. MILES: Haverhill Leisure Centre Manager James Purkiss, left, with his brother Mark.

Brothers have a mountain to climb for EACH

TWO brothers are taking on a task much more than a marathon.

Haverhill Leisure Centre Manager James Purkiss and brother Mark are planning to take on the Lakeland 50, in the Lake District on July 27.

The 50-miler is almost double the distance of a lone marathon and incorporates a 31,000m ascent with miles of rough and rocky terrain.

No mean feat, the brothers are taking part to raise money for EACH – a charity they are fully committed to supporting.

They hope to raise more than £500.

James, 33, said: "There is nothing 'easy' about the Lakeland 50, no matter how well you prepare, but we have put the training in and we are ready for the challenge. The fact that we are raising money for such a great cause is also a brilliant motivator."

DEBRA FOX

He and 47-year-old Mark, a bricklayer, have been running up to 40 miles cross country and have also been road running for 10 or 15 miles two to three times a week.

James said: "It has been great training with my brother, we have a laugh the whole time that we are out training.

"I think if we weren't laughing on some of the long cross country runs we would probably be crying."

Family fun ahead with steam days

CHILDREN can enjoy fun on the train this summer as Colne Valley Railway start their steam days.

Steam with Colin days are taking place on August 7 and August 21, and entry includes access to all the railway's facilities and unlimited rides.

There's also the chance to join in with Colin's Treasure Hunt or sample some delicious treats from the buffet – Colin's favourite.

Visitors can also take home a Colin story book, telling the tale of how he came to live at the railway and the adventures he gets up to with his friends, Big Andy Bear and Paul the Panda.

The days will run from 10.30am until 5pm, and tickets cost £9 for adults, £7 for seniors and £5 for children.

Children can get in for half price if they bring a beloved teddy or stuffed animal to meet Colin.

All money raised will go towards preserving the railway structure and the historic trains.

WINNER: The team at the Days Inn, Haverhill.

Town's hotel top with TripAdvisor in awards

A HAVERHILL hotel has been given a prize for its excellent hospitality.

Days Inn, on Phoenix Road, Haverhill, took home the Certificate of Excellence TripAdvisor accolade, which is given only to places who keep up a high level of performance.

To earn a certificate, businesses must maintain a rating of four or five out of a possible five in their reviews, and also must have been listed on the global website for at least 12 months.

The volume and content of reviews given also comes into play.

Donna Revell, General Manager at Days Inn, was proud to accept the prize, which is only awarded to the top-performing 10 per cent of those listed on TripAdvisor.

She said: "We strive to offer our customers a memorable experience, and this accolade is evidence that our hard work is translating into positive reviews on TripAdvisor."

Dealer signs up for summer fun

DEBRA FOX

HAVERHILL businesses have been lining up to take part in the upcoming Summer Bash, the biggest show the town has seen for years.

Local car dealership Drive Vauxhall is well prepared to do their bit for the day of fun and frolics on the recreation ground.

Chairman of the show committee David Doughty told the Weekly News that businesses were more than welcome to come along on the day – if they were prepared to do something funny to raise money.

There were no promotion stalls permitted, and everyone had to contribute something to the day.

James Seager, Sales Manager at Drive Haverhill, said: "At Drive Vauxhall, we are committed to supporting charities and it gives us great pleasure to try and raise as much money as we can for worthwhile causes. After the popularity of our 'beat the goalie' activity at the Bury Motorshow, we plan on raising money with a 'spot the ball' competition, which we are confident locals will enjoy, as well as providing some light refreshments for visitors."

TAKING PART: The dealership is taking part in the Summer Bash.

Drive Vauxhall is also planning to bring along their own collection of vehicles to add to the parade of motors that will officially open the show at 11am on Sunday, July 21.

Money is going towards Lamp H, the main beneficiary, and the town's scouts, elderly and food bank.

Healthcare company's big deal

A HAVERHILL based healthcare group have strengthened their business after guidance from an international finance firm.

The Kirton Healthcare Group were advised by Baker Tilly through the process of a £5.5 million management buyout.

The deal, which invited investors to make their stake in the company, will allow Kirton to expand their custom overseas.

The company are currently the leading manufacturer and supplier of specialist seating and other products for the elderly and disabled in the UK.

They also provide for local authorities, NHS Trusts, private care homes and the private homecare market.

Tom Gallop, Corporate Finance Director for Baker

Tilly's office in Bury St Edmunds, was an integral part of the deal.

He said: "We were delighted to work with the team on this exciting transaction. The buyout provides a great opportunity for the business to grow further and to extend its reach to overseas markets."

Visit www.kirton-healthcare.co.uk for more on the company.

TECHNIC technicians in Haverhill have been in business for a quarter of a century (they started young!); by providing a personal service for their customers. As owner Jonathan van Niekerk says: "Customer satisfaction is the most important thing", and his company, with its dedicated team of three technicians and an MOT tester, and two units looking after both MOTs and vehicle repairs, has weathered the recent difficult financial times by providing high levels of satisfaction to the drivers in the Haverhill area and beyond.

Indeed, customers who work as far afield as Cambridge regularly use his convenient services, dropping off their car in the morning or evening and collecting the loan cars that Jonathan is always happy to arrange.

It's service like this that has garnered the wealth of positive feedback that anyone using the garage can submit free of charge to the Good Garage Scheme website, of which Technics is a member. The company's attention to meeting their customers' needs has also meant that whole families have used them over the years. People whose parents originally got their cars or motorbikes MOTed here now return with their own vehicles, knowing that a tried-and-tested service will be offered. That's the value of reliability and an established reputation, built by word of mouth in the community. So much so, Jon says, that "Word of Mouth" has become the company's catchphrase. Taking pride in getting a job done right first time, and well-equipped to service a wide range of vehicles (including motorbikes, vans and minibuses as well as cars), Technics really does demonstrate the advantage of using an independent, personal service.

Technics are based at 1-2 Fenfield Units, Homefield Road, Haverhill CB9 8QU. Contact them on (01440) 712500.

the GUIDE

Dylan Moran

THE rather wonderful, super shambolic Black Books legend Dylan Moran is headlining Cambridge Comedy Festival's 'best of' gala show at the Corn Exchange tomorrow (Friday).

It's definitely set to be the highlight of the festival. Oh yes. The Irish comic, armed with his signature rambling style and cigarette-ravaged voice, will tackle the nightmares of kids, relationships, growing old and religion.

Currently touring with his latest show, Yeah, Yeah, in the US, we caught up with the scruffy-haired comedian for a slightly bizarre email chat:

Who or what makes you laugh and why?

Children make me laugh; telling the truth as though it weren't considered terribly poor taste.

Politicians make me laugh when they second-guess the entity they call 'the public'. Writers make me laugh, enjoying the play of their gifts – Kevin Barry is a terrific Irish short story writer and novelist. And, of course, people you dislike falling down the stairs.

And who or what do you not find funny?

What is not funny is what is not truly alive.

The inert, the ersatz, the kitsch offered up as diversion, it is everywhere, yet easily avoided – do something else, start a new conversation elsewhere.

How would you describe Yeah, Yeah?

TimeOut Chicago called it "finely tuned and intoxicatingly slapdash" – is that accurate?

I would say it is what I'm doing now – no idea what that may be.

Do you find touring a challenge?

No. There's a talented tour manager, a thing that flies or drives, peanuts – then a stage.

It's not warfare, or being a nurse on the NHS.

How have you found American and British audiences differ?

Americans and the British are funhouse reflections of each other; US positivity is a religion, just as scepticism is sacred in Britain.

What do you love about being on stage?

New stuff. The feel of my fabulous gowns clinging to my hips.

What do you think you'd be doing now if you hadn't become a comedian?

I'd be doing more questionnaires.

What are you most proud of?

My firm breasts, dance moves and the respect I get from snakes.

Do you ever get sick of being asked to revive your old sitcom Black Books?

I don't mind.

Do you have any fond memories of visiting Cambridge?

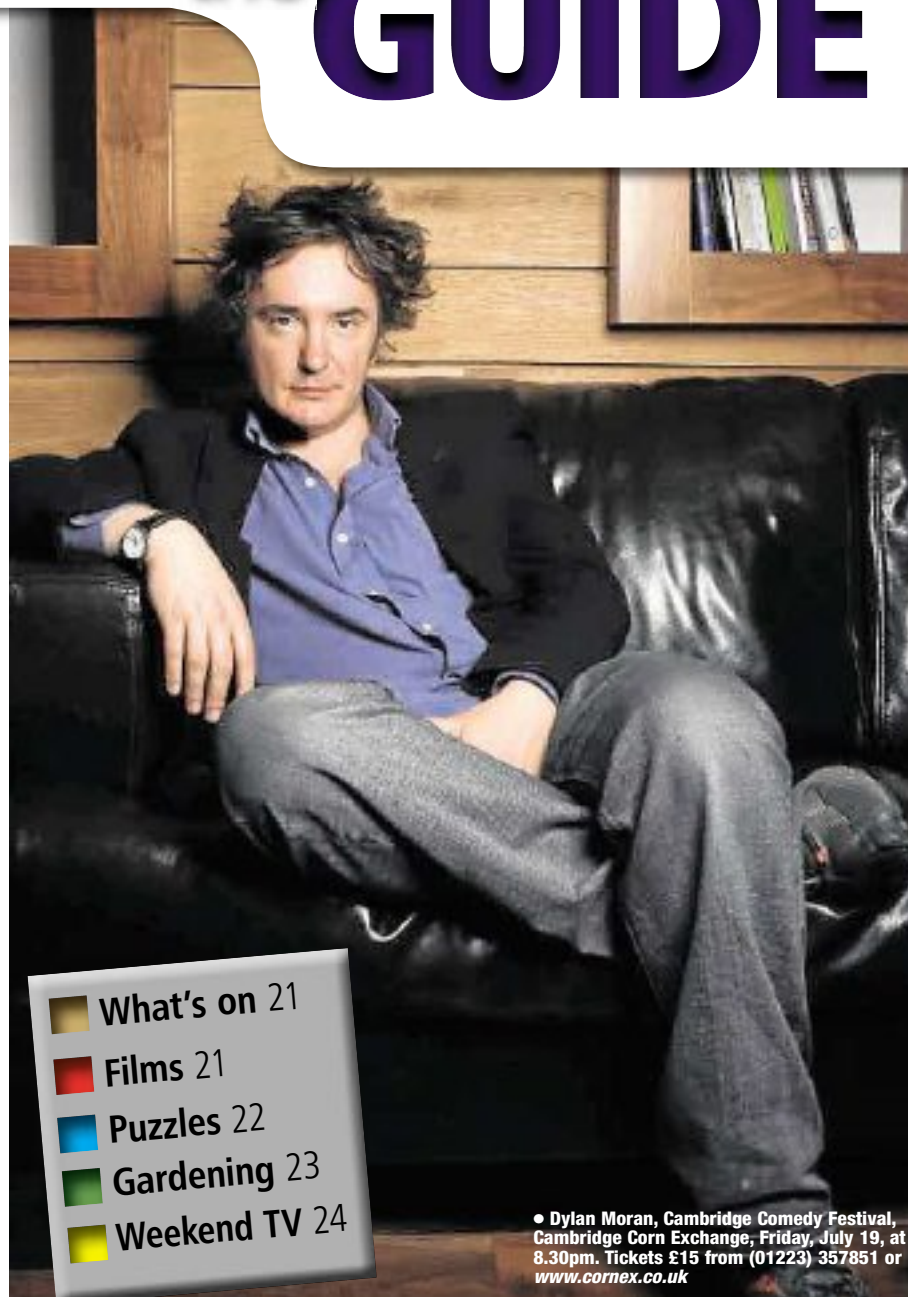

I once spent a good part of an evening on a bouncy castle drinking champagne.

It seemed wise at the time. Every limb and sinew disagreed for a long time afterwards. Glenn Wool and Jo Caulfield will be the support acts at the gala night at the Cambridge Comedy Festival. Have you come across them before?

Mr Wool I don't know. Jo, I remember as being kind, quick and very good on stage.

What have you got planned next?

I'm about to release my own range of male lingerie and root-vegetable-based perfumes for the autumn season.

WEEKLY NEWS

Lear he comes

SHAKESPEARE fever is definitely beginning to hit Cambridge.

This year's Cambridge Shakespeare Festival has already kicked off and now The Globe is paying a visit.

Currently touring the UK and Europe, and directed by Bill Buckhurst, the outdoor production of King Lear is complete with an Elizabethan style stage and velvety curtains – they do it properly this Globe lot. Hence why they can command the use of the Master's Garden at Corpus Christi College for the spectacle.

For those who weren't subjected to hours of Shakespeare at school (too many essays have been written on Macbeth for it to ever be enjoyable again), King Lear is Will's ultimate tragedy.

It starts with Old King Lear of England, ageing and tired of his royal duties, proposing to divide his kingdom between his three conniving, flattering daughters. But, what was a generous idea in theory, in practice throws up cruelty and anguish. Too late Lear, played by Joseph Marcell – best known for his role as Geoffrey in The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air – realises he has lived by false values and succumbs to madness. The question is, can you ever see anyone truly for what they are?

It is the fifth year the Globe Theatre on Tour has visited Cambridge University's college gardens, so, if you've missed Henry V, Anne Boleyn, As You Like It and Hamlet, Lear might be tempting. It might be even more tempting once you discover the Play and punt package the Arts Theatre is offering. Punt down the Cam with a tour guide then settle down under a blanket at Corpus Christie. We'll be taking snacks.

● King Lear, Cambridge Arts Theatre, The Master's Garden, Corpus Christi College, until Saturday, July 27 at 7.30pm. Tickets £20 from (01223) 503333 / cambridgeartstheatre.purchase-tickets-online.co.uk.

■ Four of the world's finest acoustic guitarists from Canada, the US and the UK take to the stage in a not-to-be-missed show tonight at 8pm. FINGERSTYLE COLLECTIVE comprises of Don Alder; modern day acoustic guitar renaissance man, phenomenal fingerstyle playing and rich voice captivate, bringing an unparalleled dynamic intensity to the stage; Dan LaVoie, one of the few musicians in the world actively composing and performing on the rare harp guitar, bringing a unique sound and texture to fans of acoustic music; Justin King, recognised as a pioneering guitarist for his percussive "tapping" playing style, consisting of a variety of influences ranging from Flamenco to Celtic music and finally Stuart Masters; combines Western and Indian Classical, folk and Celtic influences to create a unique hybrid style with pure haunting vocals. Enjoy!

■ The second of the EDINBURGH FRINGE PREVIEWS takes place tomorrow at 8pm with Simon Evans and Charlie Baker trying out their routines before they take off to Edinburgh. Come and have a laugh, it will do you good!

■ On March 28 1973 Led Zeppelin released their long awaited fifth album Houses of the Holy. WHOLE LOTTA LED will celebrate the 40th anniversary of its release on Saturday July 20, by performing the album in its entirety in the second half of the show. The first half and encore will contain more classic Zeppelin songs. We're rocking from 8pm, join us.

■ On the cinema front we start the week with French Reel Culture film OUR CHILDREN (15), a devastating news from portrayal of a young woman losing her mind. Showing on Monday July 22 at 7.45pm in Spanish with English subtitles. STAR TREK INTO DARKNESS 2D (12A) is showing on Thursday July 25 with Benedict Cumberbatch as the heinous villain and many of the old hands back on board. Beam in for a 2.30pm start. Matthew McConaughey and Reese Witherspoon star in MUD (12A), a compelling rites-of-passage drama with overtones of Mark Twain's classic novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn which is showing on Thursday July 25 at 7.45pm. Arkansas teens Ellis and Neckbone set off down the Mississippi River to discover a boat that rumour has it, has been left stranded in a tree. Not only do they find the boat but they also discover a mysterious man called Mud. Finally, with a stellar cast including Michael Douglas, Matt Damon, Rob Lowe and Dan Ackroyd, BEHIND THE CANDELABRA (15) is showing on Friday July 26 and Thursday August 1 at 7.45pm.

THE WORLD'S END

certificate 15, 1h 49m

THE apocalypse is nigh in The World's End, the concluding chapter of director Edgar Wright and actor Simon Pegg's so-called Three Flavours Cornetto Trilogy, which began with the hilarious Shaun Of The Dead then stuttered with Hot Fuzz.

Alas, the third outing is a charmless exercise in male bonding spiked with elements of The Stepford Wives as five childhood pals reunite to complete a legendary pub crawl in their sleepy hometown – only to discover the locals have been replaced by robots.

The film's fictional community of Newton Haven boasts the UK's first roundabout, built circa 1909, and Wright and Pegg's haphazard script fittingly goes round in circles as the co-writers attempt in vain to bring their hotch-potch of madcap ideas to satisfying fruition.

The tone veers wildly between sci-fi, comedy, action and horror, anchored by an exuberant performance from Pegg as the most instantly unlikeable and irritating anti-hero to swagger out of British cinema in recent memory.

A prologue set in June 1990 sketches the bonds of friendship between five teenagers, who fail to complete a crawl of 12 local pubs, culminating in a final glorious pint at The World's End.

Two decades later, the ringleader of that motley crew, Gary King (Pegg), decides to bring the lads back together to complete the booze-fuelled feat known as The Golden Mile.

With pals Andrew (Nick Frost), Steven (Paddy Considine), Oliver (Martin Freeman) and Peter (Eddie Marsan), who have all grown up, got jobs and settled down, in tow their challenge barely gets under way when Gary unmask the strangely emotionless residents as robotic doppelgangers and all hell breaks loose.

The World's End is peppered with cameos, none of which produce big laughs or distract from implausibilities in the plot.

Pegg and Frost may have their banter down pat, but the visual gags barely raise a smile and relationships between the characters are thinly sketched.

Glorious gardens

ANYONE enjoying a 'staycation' this summer should make the most of a wealth of gardens open to the public, from National Trust properties to privately-owned country estates, royal parks and RHS treasure troves of colour.

Take a notebook with you to jot down inspiring designs, plant combinations and names of plants you'd like to grow in your own garden. Don't be afraid to ask the expert gardeners on site about hardiness, location preferences and soil requirements of the species in which you are interested.

Many of the public gardens also have guided tours, workshops and special events throughout the summer – check out their websites to find out what's on.

Among the pick of the crop are:

Blickling Hall is one of England's great Jacobean houses, widely believed to be the home to Henry VIII's second wife, Anne Boleyn. The beautiful parkland houses a glorious lake and woodland, offering plenty of picnicking spots. After tucking in, let the kids discover the secret garden, investigate the ancient temple and smell the wonderful citrus trees in the orangery. (www.nationaltrust.org.uk/blickling-estate; phone (01263) 738030)

■ Alnwick Gardens, Denwick Lane, Alnwick, Northumberland NE66 1YU

This immense site is perfect for the family. Not only does it house one of the country's largest collections of European plants, laid out in striking geometric beds in its ornamental garden, and the impressive grand cascade, the largest water feature of its kind in the country, it also has plenty to interest younger family members too.

There is an amazing treehouse plus a series of water features in the serpent garden – where children may be inadvertently squirted. For others, a visit to the famous poison garden is a must. Monkshood rubs shoulders with hemlock, foxgloves, aquilegia, autumn crocus (colchicum autumnale), laburnum and hellebores. (www.alnwickgarden.com; phone (01665) 511350)

■ Dunham Massey, Altrincham, Cheshire WA14 4SJ

by Hannah Stephenson

Enjoy a satisfying stroll at Dunham Massey's 30-acre estate this summer, one of the great gardens of the North West. Its new rose garden features more than 160 varieties of stunning roses, and kids can search for quiz clues in the garden, spot a deer, clamber and climb on the log pile or help feed the chickens. (www.nationaltrust.org.uk/dunham-massey; 0161 941 1025)

■ Scampston Walled Garden, Malton, North Yorkshire

If you love contemporary design, innovative planting and a mixture of old intermingling with new, don't miss a visit to Scampston Walled Garden in Malton. The four-and-a-half acre 18th century garden, once a neglected kitchen garden occupied by Christmas trees and sheep, has been transformed into nine individual rooms separated by formal beech hedging, each room completely different from the other. Venturing from room to room, you'll find a sea of colour one minute, then the next, you'll find minimal green areas highlighted with topiary or punctuated with swathes of wavy grass. The high point for many visitors is a stunning perennial meadow which becomes a riot of colour in summer with such rich gems as salvia, rudbeckia, phlomis, sedum, knautia and monarda, mixed with flowing ornamental grasses. (www.scampston.co.uk; phone (01944) 759111)

■ RHS Garden Wisley, Woking, Surrey GU23 6QB

The jewel in the crown of RHS gardens, Wisley is worth a trip in the summer just to take in the two spectacular rose gardens. The glasshouse showcases a world class plant collection and has three climatic zones recreating tropical, moist temperate and dry temperate habitats.

Your Guide to Moving Home

Moving home can be a complicated business and in the hectic run up to the big day it is all too easy to forget something vital. The team offers their readers this handy checklist to help avoid any major pitfalls. We suggest you tick them off as you go....

1 4-2 WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – start packing and sorting through your belongings. Now is a good time to de-clutter and pack items rarely used. Make sure you have plenty of sturdy boxes, bubble wrap and sticky tape.
- ☐ Removal companies – get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Insurance – check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Utilities – make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move. Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Telecommunications – Notify your telephone and broadband provider and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone and broadband facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Post – Look into re-directing your post for a few months to make sure you receive all relevant correspondence.
- ☐ Children – Look into the possibility of your children, especially young children, staying with family or friends on the day of the move.
- ☐ Pets – Make arrangements for any pets to be booked into a cattery or kennels if required. Having your pets microchipped is a good idea and if already microchipped, have the address changed to your new one. Your vet can advise on this.

Change of address – tell companies and organisations that you are moving!

Notify:

- ☐ Employer
- ☐ Inland revenue
- ☐ Local council
- ☐ Banks or Building Societies
- ☐ Credit companies, store cards & other accounts
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and water boards
- ☐ Insurance companies
- ☐ Land / mobile phones
- ☐ Internet and cable / satellite TV providers
- ☐ Doctor, Dentist and Opticians
- ☐ DVLA
- ☐ Veterinary surgery
- ☐ TV Licensing

1 WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Delivery address – change delivery address of your Cambridge News, milk, groceries and fuel to your new address as appropriate.
- ☐ Laundry – do any last minute laundry that you can – have you arranged for a plumber to disconnect your washing machine correctly?

- ☐ Kitchen cupboards – go through your kitchen cupboards and throw out anything not in date. Also check that all jars and bottles are correctly sealed before packing.
- ☐ Fridges / Freezers – empty and clean out in preparation for moving. If you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.
- ☐ Valuables / documents – put these in safe place for moving day

4 2-1 DAYS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – pack a bag for overnight essentials and toiletries and finish all remaining packing into boxes. Remember to label which room each box is destined for.
- ☐ Snack box – pack a box for the kitchen to include essentials like tea, coffee and sugar, as well as the kettle and mugs! Also include other snacks as necessary.
- ☐ Dismantle and disconnect – take down curtains, fixtures and fittings and disconnect white goods ready for transport.
- ☐ Outdoor items – make sure that these are stacked together and ready to be moved.
- ☐ Mobile – place your mobile on charge the night before moving and ensure that all relevant people have your number.

5 ON MOVING DAY:

AT YOUR OLD ADDRESS:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Finish packing toiletries box.
- ☐ Direct removal firm personnel or friends helping you move as to what needs to be done.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler / central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Make final checks and leave key as arranged with new owners.

AT YOUR NEW HOME:

- ☐ Open up & have a look around the new house.
- ☐ Locate fuse box, gas and electric meter and stop cock for reference.
- ☐ Take readings on gas, electric and water meters as appropriate.
- ☐ Organise the direction of boxes to appropriate rooms.
- ☐ Check the van after all is unloaded.
- ☐ Make the beds up for the evening.
- ☐ Sit down and relax – unpack the other boxes the next day.

CUER race to Solar start

YOU have to admire the ingenuity and tenacity of the CUER – Cambridge University Eco-Racing – team in building its 'Resolution', writes Mike Scialom.

The rules for entrants into the bi-annual Solar Challenge in Australia were changed less than 12 months ago, and entrants for the Darwin-to-Adelaide run now must be four-wheeled vehicles. The last run, in 2011, involved two-wheeled vehicles, so it was back to the drawing board for CUER and the design and construction of the Resolution had to take place while the team were also studying, so a labour of love it has been.

However, the result is looking good. Team manager Keno Mario-Ghae says that he is confident ahead to the race which takes place in October. Looking at the competition, he told an assembled audience at Millbrook Proving Ground on Saturday he was happy because

'RESOLUTION': At Millbrook Proving Ground

Picture: Andrew Zhao

"we designed all these (other cars) but we threw them away because what we came up with is better".

The Resolution is the UK's only entrant, and its USP is that the solar panels will turn to track the sun, giving it 15-20 per cent more energy when compared to static panels.

The Resolution has already reached 55mph and is in the frame for the Guinness World Record for the "most efficient solar array in the world" title.

The team is still preparing for the gruelling race, which involves drivers doing four-hour shifts over a period of around four days. The vehicle has only basic facilities, and drivers aren't expected to stop and get out during their stint. Asked whether they would be allowed toilet breaks a CUER spokesperson said that wasn't in the gameplan: "We need them (the drivers) to be professional to the point where it's not about you any more."

■ CUER has appealed for funding to help overcome an £80,000 deficit in its financial plans.

"We have an £60,000 funding hole to get this car flown out in 60 days for the start of the race in 90 days time," Mario-Ghae told an audience which included Hermann Hauser, who is funding the solar panels, and Charles Cotton, who is providing technical advice. "The spare parts need to get shipped out in the next two to three weeks."

For further details on how to contribute to CUER's Solar Challenge 2013 please go to www.cuer.co.uk.

FIVE-DOOR SWIFT SPORT: £14,249 tag

5dr Swift Sport out

SUZUKI'S Swift Sport is already the performance flagship of the Swift model range and due to customer demand, Suzuki is introducing the five door model to provide further practicality and seating for five.

The Swift Sport's M16A engine has a variable intake system and an optimised intake VVT (Variable Valve Timing); maximum output is an impressive 136PS and maximum torque is 160Nm at an engine speed of 4,400rpm.

The engine's high output is combined with excellent fuel economy of 44.1mpg on the combined cycle with CO2 emissions of 147g/km. The extra pair of doors adds only £500 to the costs of the Swift Sport – it costs £14,249.

Delivery: Haverhill bowler Daniel Poole in action against Mildenhall.

Stellar Deller shines with the bat for Haverhill

SIMON Youngs hailed Adam Dellar's match-winning innings as one of the best he has had the pleasure to witness in Haverhill's eight-wicket win over Mildenhall in Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship Division One.

The captain, whose side completed the double over their derby rivals, watched Dellar smash 24 boundaries, including eight sixes, on his way to an unbeaten 141.

"Adam's innings was one of the best I have seen and everyone at the club is so pleased for him as he's had some poor decisions against him recently," said Simon Youngs.

"The boys did well again in the field and it was a great win for us. It keeps things going along nicely."

Dellar's blistering knock was added to by Amit Gupta, who gave them a good start with 35, and Luke Youngs (38 not out) as Haverhill flew to 231 for 2 with 17 overs remaining.

Erik Laubscher (2 for 36) was the best of the bowlers for Mildenhall, who had earlier put 229 for 7 on the board, with the all-rounder also getting 43 with the bat.

He had support from Jack Beaumont (56) and James Holmes (37), while Simon Youngs (1 for 35) had the tidest figures as the wickets were shared around.

■ Patrick Meadows delivered a classy performance with the bat as Haverhill under-14s beat Linton by nine wickets.

The batsman, who usually plays for the under-12s, struck the ball to all corners of the field and finished on 62 not out as Haverhill successfully chased down Linton's total of 130 all out.

With Marcus Richards supporting him well with 36 not out including seven boundaries, the pair put the early loss of opener Thomas Baker (17) behind them in style as they eased to 135 for 1.

Earlier, Haverhill had won the toss and put Linton in to bat, a decision that looked to have paid dividends as six wickets fell with just 34 runs on the board.

Richards was in outstanding form as he took 5 for 9 and Freddie Dickin added to Linton's misery with 3 for 5.

But Linton hit back with Ben Lindsay hitting 43, and with extras adding to their total, they amassed 130 all out.

■ Good performances with bat and ball helped Weston Colville under-15s beat local rivals Linton by six wickets.

Batting first, Linton posted 104 for 9 with Ewan Copper top-scoring on 40.

Harry Tiplady took 3 for 23 for Colville and Ed Coppen 2 for 11.

Weston Colville lost early wickets during their innings but Coppen (22) and Sam Scott (24) kept the runs ticking over.

Will Tooke (18 not out) and George Franklin (25 not out) then guided the team to victory with the innings finishing on 105 for 4.

Ed Coppen helped Weston Colville record a seven-run win over Sawston.

After a slow start with the bat, Coppen (45), Josh Schiller (18) and Sam Scott (19 not out) helped take Colville's final total to 122 for 7 off 20 overs.

Dylan Myburgh was the pick of the Sawston bowlers with 3 for 24.

In reply, Sawston made a decent start with Matthew Day (28) and Zach Abbs (37) putting on 67 for the first wicket. But after both departed, Sawston needed 35 to win off the last four overs and good bowling from Scott and George Franklin ensured they could only muster 115 for 4.

Tappin and Turley take on Gosfield challenge

HAVERHILL runners Jack Tappin and Sue Turley represented the town at the Gosfield Lake Triathlon on Sunday (14).

The Olympic-distance event, near Halstead, consisted of a 1.5km (0.9mile) swim, a 43km (27mile) cycle and a 10km (6.2mile) run in the baking heat.

Tappin (right), 25, completed the swim in 34min 52sec, the cycle in 1hr 33min 6sec and the run in 53:42 for a finish time of 3hr 13min 36sec.

Turley, 50, finished the swim in 30.21, the cycle in 1:28.02 and the run in 56:10. Her overall time was 2:57.47 and she finished eighth in the women over 40 section.

"The swim was deceptively long and the cycle route was fairly hilly," said Tappin.

"The heat really hit me once I started the run as it was a blazing hot day."

Next up for Tappin is the London Triathlon on July 28, also Olympic distance, before he tackles the half-Ironman length (double Olympic length) Cotswold Classic Triathlon on August 11.
